MANAGER COMMENTS

Stock Trading GBP gained 1.41% during September as the FTSE rallied back 2.27%. The investment has filed 20 gaining months and 4 losing months during the past two years, and as such, it remains one of the least volatile equity-based investments in the offshore marketplace. The accounts benchmark, the FTSE 100, has gained just 7.36% in the two years to the 1st of October whilst this investment has recorded a 46.91% gain. This underlines the upside potential derived from selectively trading UK stocks.

Market: London stocks rose early on Friday the 29th as investors mulled upbeat UK growth data. At 08:40 BST, the FTSE 100 was 0.8% firmer at 7,659.93, while the sterling was up 0.4% against the dollar at 1.2248, this was after figures from the Office for National Statistics showed that the economy grew more than initially estimated in the first quarter. The statistics for the UK GDP have been revised higher and are now estimated to be 1.8% above pre-pandemic 2019 levels. Stock Trading has an outstanding trading record; as always, it must be remembered that this investment trades in stocks, and as such, it is a high-risk investment.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

RIO Stock Trading GBP is a high-risk trading platform through which RIO can invest in currency, UK equities, and the commodity market. The account may also invest in other high-risk traded securities, where the potential gains are deemed to be in line with the risk-reward ratio, at the discretion of the investment manager. The trading strategy favours a midterm investment of between 2-3 years due to the expected short-term volatility.

As an active investment specialist, market volatility can create a prime investment opportunity and RIO expects further volatility, especially against the current backdrop. Geopolitical tensions are at fever pitch as the effects of Russia's invasion of Ukraine make negotiations tense. The knock-on effects of this are reflected in the stock values of UK-listed companies.

RIO Stock Trading GBP will focus predominantly on trading those entities listed on the FTSE 100 index and has already identified several trading opportunities.

Please note that this investment is only suitable for those prepared to accept the additional risk, in exchange for the potential reward.
